FOUNDER'S MESSAGE

My Dear Friends,

This month we have achieved a milestone as well as a personal goal of mine. The US Group has expanded into the telecommunication industry. It gives me great pleasure to announce that Ceilão Logistics Group Pvt Ltd has acquired the Airtel Distribution in Western Province within Gampaha District. I welcome all our new colleagues to the group.

As we are in the last quarter of the year, I urge each businesses to work together and plan all sales, marketing and promotional campaigns for the year end well in advance.

This year has been a challenging year with an automatic reset button, instilled in the world due to Covid 19. We have certainly forged ahead with great strife and believe we will end the year in a sustainable manner.

As a gesture of appreciation, the organization is hosting the first Inter Company 6 a side Challenge Trophy. This will be played in memory of Late Mr. Hiran Kulatunga and Mr. Hilary Fernando. The winning team will receive a grand prize of LKR 100,000 !!!! Preparation work is in progress and I am happy to see the enthusiasm within the teams. Food, Games, Prizes and surprises have been planned. I encourage you all to be a part of this fun filled day and look forward to meeting all of you!

PROJECT 'HOPE' SECURES RELEASE OF ITS FIRST PRISONER.

Project HOPE - Help our prisoners evolve.

Project Hope is with the vision of building a platform of "HOPE" for first-time offenders and for prisoners who have served time and yet are unable to pay their fines. The projects intend to secure the convicted persons release, to help them evolve into being reformed and better citizens of Sri Lanka.

I am pleased to inform you, that as Founder donor of Project HOPE, the project team was able to go through the entire process in securing the release of Project HOPE's first prisoner on the 11th of September 2020.

For a misdemeanor, Gamini Thilakaratne, a brilliant baker of 32 years, who could turn out any bakery items with supreme ease, was fined Rs 1500 (US $ 9)

Due to his inability to physically pay this fine in court, he was sentenced to serve 3 months in prison.

What was alarming about this entire event was, the government of Sri Lanka was incurring a budgeted cost of Rs 180,000 to house Gamini Thillakaratne for 90 days in jail, for simply not being able to pay a mere fine of Rs 1500.

"Project HOPE" will shortly launch its end to end programme of having prisoners released and with the help of many corporate CSR projects, give these people a second chance of rebuilding their lives.

We are proud to be a part of this project which will undoubtedly make a change in our society.

Manjula Kulatunga

An unflappable young talent with a killer cover drive, Lahiru Thirimanne came to the international landscape highly regarded by Sri Lanka's cricket elite, with Aravinda de Silva most notably among his champions. An opener by reputation, Thirimanne made his debut in early 2010 and earned sporadic places in the national side over the next two years, but it was not until he was moved to the middle order in 2012 that he unearthed the consistency that would make him a regular at the top level.

A measured batsman, if at times a limited one, Thirimanne has been a contrasting ally for Sri Lanka's middle-order dashers in ODI cricket, striking particularly memorable partnerships with Angelo Mathews to lift Sri Lanka out of trouble.

His forte has always been the longest form however, as evidenced by a first-class average of almost 60 in his first full season for Ragama CC. Thirimanne could not recreate that form in his first few Tests as an opener, but conjured his finest innings to date at no. 4, when he stepped off a plane 36 hours before the 2013 New Year Test to strike a sparkling 91 on the first day in Sydney. Ten days later he hit a maiden international hundred in an ODI to take Sri Lanka to victory in Adelaide.
